

Biodiversity of the Thompson-Nicola

Want to become a community scientist and contribute to a better understanding of biodiversity?

These photos were taken as part of the BC Parks iNaturalist Project iNaturalist is available in the App Store & Google Play Scan the QR Code or visit www.bcinat.com to get started

Photographers: Jason Headley, Erin Springinotic, Kate McKeown, John Reynolds, Brian Starzomski, Lena Dietz Chiasson, Thomas Barbin, Ellyne Geurts, and Jennifer McIntosh

1. Hummingbird clearwing, 2. Mourning cloak, 3. Long beach fern, 4. Eastern kingbird, 5. Western rattlesnake plantain, 6. Apple curculio, 7. Brittle pricklypear, 8. Glaucous gentian, 9. Clustered broomrape, 10. Common gaillardia, 11. Bullock's oriole, 12. Red-femured milkweed borer, 13. Silvery blue, 14. Elegant sunburst lichen, 15. Choke cherry, 16. Fee's lip fern, 17. Four-spurred assassin bug, 18. Sagebrush mariposa lily, 19. Banded garden spider, 20. Ponderosa pine, 21. Common mullein, 22. Cedar waxwing, 23. Rubber rabbitbrush, 24. Showy milkweed, 25. Spotted spreadwing, 26. Anise swallowtail, 27. Crested wheatgrass, 28. Hoary marmot, 29. Parenthesis lady beetle, 30. Brown-eyed wolf lichen, 31. Yellow-pine chipmunk

iNaturalist.ca