

Summer Naturalist Positions: The BC Parks iNaturalist Project

BC Parks

University
of Victoria

SIMON FRASER
UNIVERSITY

In partnership with BC Parks, we (Brian Starzomski, University of Victoria, and John Reynolds, Simon Fraser University) are looking to hire 3-5 naturalists, and perhaps more pending further funding, to survey the flora and fauna of BC Provincial Parks and beyond, using the community science platform iNaturalist. We will build on a very successful track record with this project over the last four years. The positions are subject to availability of funds in the BC provincial budget, with a salary of $2500-3000/month (plus field expenses) from May through August, with possibility of an earlier start and/or an extension.

Tasks

- Conduct species surveys in parks and other regions across the province, and upload photos and audios from your computer (90%)
- Engage in public outreach, including bioblitzes (10%)

Necessary Skills

- Remote First Aid (20-hour certification) and Class 5 Driver's Licence
- Extensive experience with the community science app iNaturalist
- Extensive hiking, camping, backpacking experience
- Strong natural history skills with a variety of taxa & good photography skills
- Excellent logistical and safety skills

Assets (but not strictly necessary)

- Your own camera
- Your own vehicle

If you don't like rain, heat, camping, bugs, hiking, and remote places, this job is not for you!

To apply, please send the following to bc.inaturalist@gmail.com, with the subject line "BC Parks iNat Project":

- (1) a cover letter stating how you meet each of the above criteria, including identification ability with plants and various animal groups.
- (2) a CV that includes your first aid certifications, iNaturalist ID (this is very important), and contact details for 3 references; and
- (3) unofficial transcripts.

Application deadline: We will begin reviewing applications on 15 December 2022, and we will continue until positions are filled. Positions are subject to availability of funding and COVID-19 protocols in British Columbia.
